To Organize Branches of the National Censorship Board

Volunteer censorship boards as organized to the legal bodies existing in a State or municipal law will be given a trial in a number of communities throughout the country during the next few months. The idea of establishing such boards has originated in a sentiment that has been growing steadily against a centralized censorship. It has been several times pointed out in these columns that the film manufacturers had it in their power to obviate all talk of a censor by censoring the films themselves. Falling in this the exhibitors, for their own business interests, should establish a board of made or some similar body to view the films that come into each community for the purpose of using only those that will be acceptable to that part of the public the exhibitors serve.

It would seem that the volunteer censorship board would be an excellent idea—certainly a better idea than the centralized censorship, provided the exhibitors would abide by the board's decisions. It probably is not generally understood that the national board of censorship is just such a body. It has no legal status whatever. It is a body of eminent men and women interested in the progress of the moving picture and the cause of social service. Not one of them has any financial interest in a moving picture concern and each of them is chosen for his understanding of the needs of the people. The service that is rendered by the board is extremely arduous. The number of films that are viewed is very large and the duties entail a great responsibility.

The producers who carry the trailer showing the stamp of the board's approval on their films are not required by any law or regulation to submit the films to the board. The submission of pictures is made by them purely as a courtesy, although those companies who do not submit them agree to keep rigidly within the requirements of these censors. J. W. Binder, who has been engaged in the extension of the board's activities in the organization of the community boards, declares that very few bad pictures ever get to the board's scrutiny, and that a few bad pictures have caused most of the campaigns for legalized censorship. Mr. Binder explains that there have been, in his opinion, two things that have caused the solid growth of the motion picture business: legalized censorship and bad pictures.

China is to be the scene of the production in which Elsie Ferguson is to open the season at the New National Theater on Monday afternoon as the first offering of the new winter season of 1914-15. The original production of this play was built for the stage at the Polk's Theater at a time when the big Avenue theater was known as Allen's Grand Opera House. The central figures of the story are Maryland Calvert, daughter of the South, and Allan Kendrick, her young lover, who feels compelled to fight for the Stars and Stripes against his own people. Miss Jewel will be seen next week in the role of the heroine, and Mr. Kendrick will be seen in the role of the hero.

To bring about this very desirable result, the plan which I have undertaken for the national board, said Mr. Binder, is to have the board of censorship in each city to be able to bring this small number of pictures under the supervision of the board. Local theaters, having heard of the success achieved by "Cabiria," the newspaper call to early applicants and season reservationists has led to an unbroken line at the box office every day. The box office is open daily from 8:30 a. m. till 10 p. m. The inaugural bill will have two stars and six other all-headline attractions supplemented by other popular regulars. The list includes Cecil Deane, Cleo Mayfield and company, Jack Wilson, Franklin Bate and company, Winona Winter, and others.

A military train will be the central feature of an entirely new program by the Lyman H. Howe Travel Festival at the Columbia Theater beginning Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock and continuing throughout the week at 2:30 o'clock and at 8:15. The great film, which was partly the result of preparation and partly of accident, depicts a military train of troops steadily down a steep mountain side, around sharp curves and finally in a precipitous plunge over a steep precipice. Many European scenes are included in the program together with a liberal supply of motion pictures.

All the rest of the week visitors of Glen Echo Park will have an opportunity both afternoon and evening to see dainty Marie Thelin in her exhibition of diving. The management of the resort has found a most popular attraction, and there is every indication that a season record attendance will be made this week. For the benefit of those who go in the afternoon, also, fancy diving with various high and low performance. In the evening the "pops" of the orchestra will be the feature of the regular attraction, including the free movie, and on the bill of fare this week, and on Sunday the Charles O. "The Heart of Maryland," David Belasco's famous civil war drama, has been selected by Polk's Theater for presentation next Monday afternoon as the first offering of the new winter season of 1914-15. FINANCIAL Is This the Kind of Bank You Want to Bank With?

The Munsey Trust Company has a capital of $2,000,000. It started right, with its capital fully paid in before it opened its doors for business. Capital enough to make it as solid as the "Rock of Gibraltar."

- It pays 2% interest on checking accounts.
- It pays 3% interest on ordinary savings accounts.
- It pays 4% interest on special savings accounts.

Interest compounded monthly (twelve times a year) on the 2% accounts and four times a year on the 3% accounts, and interest so figured that the depositor gets "Square Deal." There are no rules, no penalties, no subterfuges with us that whittle down the rate and keep your money draws interest every day it is in the Munsey Trust Company, however long or short the time, and every business day in the year in deposit day.

The Munsey Trust Company is a serious, substantial bank, conducted on sound business principles. It is not a "get-rich-quick" scheme, it is not a "penny ante" game, it is not a "lottery" where you can win big money or lose it all. It is a bank where you can do as well as you can do anywhere else. Think this over—it is very much worth your while.
